

The New World Order

Some of you may be interested in our future as a 2nd class country if Russia, China and the UN have their way.

The New World Order initiative means relinquishing our sovereignty to the United Nations. including abrogating freedom of the press and the 2nd amendment.

March of last year saw President Biden call for building and leading a New World Order at the Business Roundtable's CEO Quarterly Meeting in Washington, D.C.

Then nine days later, Russian Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov and his Chinese counterpart pledged to do the same at a press conference.

Recently, Chinese President Xi Jinping and Russian President Vladimir Putin promised to work together to build a New World Order as an alternative to the West

China's rise to power has led to discussions about certain aspects of the present world system, demonstrating a preference for a Chinese-led global order via the Belt and Road Initiative and Global Development and Security Initiatives.

China's colossal infrastructure "Belt and Road" investments are intended to usher in a new era of trade and growth for influencing economies in Asia and beyond.

But skeptics worry that China is laying a debt trap for borrowing governments.

In past months, Xi has rolled out a Global Development Initiative, a Global Security Initiative, and, most recently, a Global Civilization Initiative. What they all share is a world view that offers to embrace all countries, irrespective of their political systems and ideologies, contrasting China's approach to what Beijing calls US efforts to divide the world between democracies and autocracies.

"The Russian Federation intends to give priority to the elimination of vestiges of the dominance of the United States and other unfriendly countries in world politics," the new Russian concept states.
